The Summit on Vocational Rehabilitation Program Evaluation

The Summit on Vocational Rehabilitation Program Evaluation is an event whose purpose is to provide educational experiences based on the expertise of knowledgeable professionals, begin collaborative conversations and inspire all to move towards excellence in program performance and quality assurance as a means of providing quality services to people with disabilities.

Who is it for?

The Summit is for state Vocational Rehabilitation Program & Evaluation Specialists. These specialists may have many different titles, but it is those that administer and develop such quality assurance activities as consumer satisfaction surveys, case file reviews, comprehensive needs assessments, economic impact studies, and other quality assurance measures. Other interested parties are welcome.

Presenters

- Program Planning & Evaluation Specialists
- RCEP Directors from Regions VIII, IX and X
- Professional Educators from Rehabilitation Counseling Programs
- Presenters from other related academic fields

Featured Topics
